Andrew Johnson on Treason. "Treason against the Government is the highest crime that can be committed, and those engaged in it should suffer all its penalics. Traitors must not only be punished but help social power must be destroyed. If not they maintain an ascendancy, and may again become numerous enough for treason to

ANDREW JOHNSON ON EECONSTRUCTION.

"In calling a convention to restore the State, who shall restore and re-establish it? Shall the man who gave his influence and his means to destroy the Government." Is he to participate in the great work of reorganization? Shall he who brought this misery advantages. The shall he who brought this misery advantation? Shall he who brought this misery advantages. The shall he who be to participate in the great work of reorganization? Shall he sho be so then all the precious blood of our brave soldiers and officers so freely poured out will inve been wantonly spilled, all the glorious victories won by our noble armies will go for naught, and all the battle-fields which have been sown with dead heroes during the rebellion will have been made memorial in vain. Why all this carnage and devastation? It was that treason might be put down and traitors punished. Therefore I say that traitors shall take a back chair to be put down and traitors punished. Therefore I say that traitors shall take a back chair in the work of restoration."

ANDREW JOHNSON IN PAVOR OF DISTEANCHISHOF THAITORS.

"I say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen; and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy. He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy our Government. We say to the most houset and land and Germany to dwell among us, and to add to the wealth of the country. 'Refore you can be a citizen you must stay here for five years,' If we are so cautious about foreigners, who voluntarily renounce their homes to live with us, what should we say to the traitor who, although born and reared among us, has raised a paricial inand against the Government which always protected him? My judgment is that he should be subjected to a severe ordeal before he is restored to cilizenship."

Gov. W. L. Sharkey, Jackson, Miss.:
"I am gratified to see that you have organized your Convention without difficulty. I hope that without deiny your Convention will amend your State constitution, abolishing slavery and denying to all future legislatures the power to legislate that there is property in man; also that they will adopt the amendment to the Constitution of the United Saates abolishing slavery. If you could extend the elective franchise to all syrrooms of Colon who can read the Constitution of the United States in English and write their mannes, and to all persons of color who Goth who Gun read to color who Goth. of the United States in English and write their names, and to all persons of color who own real calact valued as to all persons of color who own real calact valued as to less than two hundres and fifty dollars, and pay taxes thereon, you would set un example the other States will follow. This you can do with perfect safety, and you thus place the Southern States, in reference to free persons of color, upon the same basis with the free States. I hope and trust your Convention will do this, and, as a consequence, the Radicals, who are wild upon negro franchise, will be completely foiled in their attempt to keep the Southern States from renewing their relations to the Union by not accepting their Senators and Representatives."

John W. Kennedy, Copperhead candidate for Secretary of State, as we are informed, was a short time ago sum-moned before the Board of Registra-tion, of Jefferson county, to show cause why his name should not be stricken from the list of voters-the board believing that a man who was impeached as Judge, on account of disloyalty, was excluded under the Constitution. The ex-Judge with true chivalric elegance and modesty responded, with an oath, that if he were not allowed to vote at that if he were not answed to vote at the coming election, not a single "G—d d—d radical" in the township should by the human family is 4,480,000 cast a vote. Soldiers Read!—Why the Equalization Bounty is not Paid. There is no longer reason to doubt that Andrew Johnson has arrayed himof a black man, is pending in the Uncuit Court of Harrison county, and is expected to come up for trial at the next term. The facts, as we learn them, are that Andrew Johnson has arrayed himself, against the "Boys in Blue," and that they cannot expect a favor at his hands, unless they sacrifice the principle. About the expiration of the term of ples for which they fought in the war, and support "My Policy." election that seemed doubtful. If be ing the candidate of a party and accept ing a nomination on its published plat form, be not sufficient evidence of beor Johnson left his home in Harrison county to engage in the rebellion. When he returned he found the relations between himself and Mr. Meade somewhat altered, the latter having the same status before the law as himself. Mr. Meade applied for payment of the notes. Mr. Johnson refused, and Mr. Meade has brought suit to enforce payment.

Mr. Johnson claims that Meade was his slave at the time the transactions took place, and that Meade's money was his money; that in borrowing of Meade he was only borrowing of Meade he was only borrowing of him self, and that therefore he don't owe anybody else. He also claims that Meade was giving him this money for the purchase of his (Meade's] wife, and that when enough had been paid over she was to have her freedom.

Mr. Meade claims that he was a freeman, and that Johnson had admitted the fact and that the admission can be proven. It is certainly true that Johnson's claim to the money because it was for the purchase of the woman's freedom has no force even in law, because his part of that contract if it eyer existed never was performed. He did not give her her freedom. That was given her by public law.

The case is a novel one, and the trial of it will be attended with no little interest. In a moral aspect there is but one side to it; and the bare probability that the slave code existing in this State before the rebellion may defraud this black man out of him honest earnings, is but a fair illustration of that infantoners and many to him. longing to it, further evidence may be

PIANOS

THE GREAT REPUTATION OF THE LANGE Piano has induced makers of inferior instruments to represent to their customers that the Pianos they sell are precisible same as the Knabe, made by workmen the same as the Knabe, made by workmen formerly employed by them, &c., &c.

This is an old dodge, and one that is only the property of the control of the trade and consequently are manufacturers, who cannot sell their pianos to the trade and consequently are manufactured to force them on the market at any updated to force them on the market at any updated to force them on the supersymmetry OF THE RNABE. The support of the supersymmetry of the s sary.

It is a well known fact that all first-day
Plano manufacturers have their established agencies and dispose of their goods through them.

The Knabe Piano
